

books

39 COVER STORY William Shawcross's official life of the Queen Mother almost commits the cardinal sin of making her seem dull, says Christopher Hart

40-41 BIOGRAPHY Alan Clark was no roguish national treasure, says Robert Harris, but a sinister, adulterous crypto-fascist

42 FINANCE Dominic Lawson looks for the motive behind Bernard Madoff's $65 billion fraud

46 AMERICA Edward Kennedy's last word on his dead brothers and Chappaquiddick, by Stephen Robinson

38 THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLERS

my must sees

Anthony Michaels-Moore sings the title role in ENO's Rigoletto at the Coliseum, WC2, Sept 21-Oct 23

■ THEATRE An Inspector Calls (Novello Theatre, WC2, from Tue to Nov 14) I can't wait to see this.

■ MUSIC Orquesta Buena Vista Social Club (Albert Hall, SW7, Oct 13) For those smoky, seductive South American rhythms.

■ ART Tate Modern (SE1) My American girlfriend will be visiting England for the first time this month, and this will be a fabulous place to spend a day.

12-13 FILM Sam Mendes's comedy in Away We Go

20-21 THEATRE Is it worth praying for the new Sh

22-23 THE CRITICAL LIS

28-29 ON RECORD This w

51-79 TV & RADIO The be programmes and fil

Cover: Madonna, 1986.
Photograph by Lime Foto/ Eyevine